DEPUTY AFTER PLACE

Bennett White Seeks Position of Game Warden Lively, Who Will Shortly Resign.

Bennett S. White, deputy state game and fish warden and chief warden of the West Virginia division of the League of American Sportsmen, was in the city from Morgantown Monday on business connected with his deputyship.

Mr. White is state deputy under Frank Lively, of Hinton.
It is rumored that Mr. Lively will resign his official position in the near future, although his term does not expire until 1907, and in consideration of this fact Mr. White's friends are booming him for the position. The office is an appointive one by the governor. There are two or three aspirants for the position when Mr. Lively resigns from different parts of the state, but Mr. White's boom is being pushed by his friends in the hopes that it will grow in such magnitude as to receive proper recognition when the governor makes the appointment.

During the past thirteen months Mr. White has prosecuted 67 cases of violations of the state game laws from which fines amounting to $1,380.10 have been paid.
